

ROOSEVELT FORCES EXPECT TO WIN IN PENN STATE TODAY

Campaign Managers, at Hour
Primaries Begin, Wire
Optimistic Message.

If Woodrow Wilson fails to carry substantially a solid delegation, he will be eliminated and Champ Clark will take a long and not unlikely a winning lead in the race for the Democratic nomination.

That Roosevelt will make a winning that will mean disaster to the Taft campaign, is the confident expectation of his backers, the frankly expressed fear of the Taft managers. Today the politicians are not predicting; they are too close under the guns.

Utter chaos and uncertainty prevail in the minds of the Pennsylvania Republican leaders. They don't know whether Roosevelt will get a third, or a substantial majority of the delegates. They do know that there has been a terrific uprising in his favor in the last week, and there is serious possibility that it may actually sweep the Keystone State into the Roosevelt column, with the twelve delegates-at-large and a majority of the district delegates.

Summary of Delegates.

The weekly summary of delegate strength of the different Presidential candidates reflects today the week's tremendous gains for Roosevelt. It has been a Roosevelt week, from first to last. At the wind-up, the figures ran out—Pennsylvania, of course, being omitted—thus:

Roosevelt	151
Taft	45
La Follette	33
Cummings	1
Uninstructed	106
Contested	161

These figures tell only the beginning of the story. Of the 121 Roosevelt delegates, 115 represent districts that commonly return Republican majorities for President. These districts must be carried by the Republicans if they elect a President next November.

Of the 106 uninstructed delegates, 95 are from States and districts that must go Republican, generally speaking, if a Republican President is to be elected. They are uninstructed because their constituents were not willing to commit themselves to Mr. Taft. They want a strong candidate, and therefore held off.

Of the 161 contested delegates, 122 represented districts and States that cannot possibly be expected to go Republican in November: Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, South Carolina, Tennessee, and Virginia. President Taft's entire hope of winning the nomination is based on his expectation that the national committee will settle these contents in his favor and let him be nominated by votes that represent NOT A SINGLE VOTE IN THE ELECTORAL COLLEGE FOR HIM OR ANY OTHER REPUBLICAN.

Not Vital to Roosevelt.

It must be understood that Pennsylvania's result today, while critical to Mr. Taft, is not nearly so important to Colonel Roosevelt. A disaster in Pennsylvania puts Taft out. He will "take the count" if he goes down there. On the other side, if Roosevelt fails to land a solar plexus swing in Pennsylvania, he has more punches coming. Nebraska will land one next week; Kansas, Minnesota, California—the whole big West, Ohio, a divided Massachusetts, and all the rest of them—will line up in due time.

Taft MUST carry Pennsylvania practically solid. Roosevelt can lose it all and yet win.

Immediately after the Pennsylvania result is known Colonel Roosevelt will start for the West to stump Nebraska and Kansas. He will leave New York Monday, reach Chicago Tuesday morning, take a fast train for Nebraska, and in the next two days—Wednesday and Thursday—will speak at Holdrege, Hastings, Grand Island, Central City, Columbus, Schuyler, Fremont, Omaha, Beatrice, Nebraska City, and a long list of smaller places along the route, ending up at Lincoln Thursday night with a great State rally on the eve of the State Presidential preference, which is to be held Friday.

The one uncomfortable feature of the Nebraska situation, as it is viewed by the Roosevelt people, is the La Follette factor. Senator La Follette has stumped the State, and his organization is frankly out now to prevent Roosevelt getting the delegation. The progressives are being split, but despite this the State is confidently expected to give Roosevelt a clear majority.

Two days of stumping by the Colonel in Kansas will follow the Nebraska tour; then come the Kansas primaries.

Captured North Carolina.

That Roosevelt has captured North Carolina, definitely and finally, was the admission implied by an announcement that came from Charlotte today. Most of the county conventions have been held. Today announcement comes of the last effort of the Taft people to save something from the wreck. Their plan is unique.

John M. Morehead, State chairman, and Taft leader, declares that the State vote in the national convention must be pro-rated between Taft and Roosevelt in the ratio of their strength in the State as a whole. On this basis, Morehead says, Taft would get 8 of the 24 votes, and Roosevelt 16. On the plan always followed, heretofore, Roosevelt would get a solid delegation.

The innovation is so striking there is believed to be no chance that a convention overwhelmingly controlled by the Roosevelt forces will submit to it. The Federal officeholding crowd, however, will be on hand to press it with all possible insistence.

Agricultural Budget

Under Consideration

The agricultural appropriation bill was taken up today before the subcommittee of the Senate Committee on Agriculture, which is in charge of the measure. Secretary Wilson appeared and was heard on various estimates for his department. The hearing was behind closed doors.

MARSH MURDER PUZZLES STATE AND CITY POLICE

Saugus river in which the body was found by a beach comb yesterday, has failed to help the police. They are certain the actual slaying took place miles from the place where the body was found and there is a possibility that it took place in a residence.

According to the police they found no enemies of Marsh among the business men he has associated with or among his former employees. All spoke in the highest terms of him, and because of this fact the police leaned more and more to the jealousy theory.

Marsh was seventy-three years old. While he was most proud of his business ability and spent much time in his office, he lived the simple life and it was a common belief among the inhabitants of the city that they "could not see their watches" by the old man's daily movements.

A mysterious stranger who was seen about the Marsh home on Thursday has not yet been found. Dr. Charles H. Bergengren and other persons living in the vicinity, have furnished a description of this man and he is being sought. He had a small runabout automobile and the police also have a description of it.

The police say Marsh alighted from the car at Essex and Chatham streets near his residence, and was last seen, so far as is known, in Chatham street about 5:30 p. m. Chief Burkes believes that when within 100 yards of his home Mr. Marsh was picked up by some person in an automobile.

Senate Committee Debates Proposed Pacts

The Senate Foreign Relations Committee held a special meeting today to consider the treaties providing for loans to Honduras and Nicaragua. The committee discussed the treaties at length, but took no action upon them.

The Senate Democrats are opposed to the treaties as a matter of party politics. A number of Republicans are also opposed to them and their fate is very uncertain.

Memorial Rites Planned.

Memorial services will be held tomorrow by the House for Congressman Madison and on Sunday, May 12, for former Congressman Gordon.

JURY AT MORGUE HOLDS YOUNG BOY

Twelve-Year-Old Child Must Await Action of Grand Jury.

Action, said to be unprecedented, in the District, was taken today when the coroner's jury held a twelve-year-old boy for the action of the Grand Jury. The boy is John Marshall, of 637 S street northwest, who is charged with murder in connection with causing the death of John Winston, colored, fourteen years old, who died Thursday night in Freedman's Hospital.

On April 6, it is charged by the police, Winston was struck on the head by a stone thrown by the Marshall boy. The injury resulted in his death. Because the Marshall boy's age he could not be committed to jail, and Coroner Nevitt, not knowing what to do with the boy, had him sent to District Attorney Wilson's office. The District Attorney will decide what is to be done with the boy.

Jeff Davis' Campaign Expenses Were $2,412.10

The final campaign expense statement of Senator Jeff Davis of Arkansas was received by the secretary of the Senate today. It shows that Senator Davis spent $2,412.10 in addition to the $615.90 previously acknowledged to get his renomination. He states that the money was spent for clerk hire, advertising, postage, etc.

J. W. Morton, of Salem, Ore., candidate for the Senate, states in his first campaign account submitted to the secretary that he has spent $636 in his race for the Senate against Senator Bourne.

taken every precaution to keep the matter secret, but twenty-five arrests have already been made, and there is a possibility that men prominent in the Diaz regime may be involved. The governor of the City of Mexico asserts the plot is widespread, and the authorities have no idea how far the trail may lead. The most important man arrested is Gonzales Oteiza, member of a well-known Toluca family.

Americans in Fear Of Further Rioting In Mexican Capital

MEXICO CITY, April 13.—With a strike on the National railroad certain, which means the tying up of nearly all railroad lines in Mexico, and General Orozco refusing to recognize Marion Lecher as the United States consul at Chihuahua, together with serious developments within Mexico City, Americans here today are in fear for their safety.

President Madero has issued an order forbidding Americans to bring any more arms into the capital, saying that he considers the arming of foreigners dangerous to Mexicans. Of the 1,000 Krag-Jorgensen rifles shipped here, few have been taken out by Americans, owing to the prohibitive price at which they are held, and the great mass of foreigners are entirely unarmed. They charge that the Spanish papers here are uniformly against them and through published articles, are endeavoring to start fighting. Should the United States have to take any action toward Mexico the Americans believe there would be an uprising against them. Talk of intervention has been revived and rumors were spread that an invasion may be expected April 15.

LEAVITT LEAVES FOR CANADA TOMORROW

Forest Inspector Formally Quits
Forestry Service Here
Today.

Clyde Leavitt, forest inspector and assistant in charge of the acquisition of lands under the Weeks law, will leave Washington tomorrow morning for Ottawa, Canada, to accept a post as chief forester to the conservation commission and chief iron inspector to the railway commission of the Dominion government. Mr. Leavitt resigned several days ago.

Mr. Leavitt has been in the service of the United States for eight years, receiving an appointment as an assistant forester soon after graduating from the Michigan University with a B. A. degree.

Clerk Held on Charge of Larceny

Morris Jalliet, a clerk, twenty years old, 1519 I street northwest, was arrested today by Detectives Springman and O'Brien on a charge of grand larceny. The prisoner is alleged to have taken a pearl and diamond stickpin valued at $250 from the room of James Simmonds, who lives in the same house with Jalliet. The detectives say they recovered the pin from a man who told them he had bought it from Jalliet for $45.

THIN FOLKS MADE FAT

The Way Samose Works Its Wonders
Guaranteed by Jas. O'Donnell.

More than half the readers of The Times would give almost anything to be plump and rosy instead of thin and scrawny.

Physicians and chemists for years have studied the problem of making a flesh-forming food, but it is only within the last few months that a certain man discovered the prescription that, taken with the daily meals, gives a positive increase in flesh. In fact, it was so certain in its action that a guarantee was attached to each package stating that if weight did not increase as a result of using it, the purchase price would be refunded.

This preparation is now put up in convenient form for use under the name of Samose.

Jas. O'Donnell has secured the agency in Washington for Samose, and as the percentage of satisfactory results from the use of this prescription is so nearly one hundred per cent, he feels there is no risk in offering to refund the money for Samose does not do all that is claimed for it.

Everybody that is thin and out of health should begin today the use of Samose with a guarantee like this. Sent postpaid on receipt of price, 50 cents.
